6. Activities concerning studying verdicts and consultation of execution

For work that is directly related to the study of a title of calculation of a compound claim, the subsequent written notification to the client and consultation with regard to the manner of execution, the client will be charged an amount equal tot he amount of the after costs (nasalaris) in the case concerned. This amount will also be charged if the case is delivered after the verdict has been obtained.

Please note::

Salary agent and after costs (nasalaris) relate to an allocated contribution towards the costs of the authorized representative (in this case Caminada & Van Leeuwen). Since it concerns an allowance, the other party does not owe VAT on these amounts. When charging these amounts by the authorized representative, it concerns turnover and VAT must be paid by the authorized representative. If the claimant is not liable for VAT, the VAT cannot be settled by the claimant with the tax authorities. Consequently, the VAT is for the account of the claimant/client.

13. Comments

- a. The Btag rate can be found on: www.kbvg.nl/wetten-en-regels/tarievenstelsel
- b. The Btag tarief is a debtor's rate, which cannot be deviated from in favor or against the debtor, but in favor or against the client in accordance with this list of rates or other agreements with the client
- c. Court fees can be found on: www.rechtspraak.nl;
- d. Rates of salary agent can be found on: www.rechtspraak.nl
- e. No file costs are charged for assignments that are merely an assignment of an official act, which is closed directly after the assignment has been carried out;
- f. A file is created for all collection- and execution orders, for which filecosts are charged;
- g. If in the amicable phase the debtor pays the principal plus the collection costs, the file costs will not be charged.
- h. Collection costs are in principle charged to the debtor. However, if only (part of) the principal sum is paid, the collection costs will be charged to the client, calculated on the amount collected;
- i. File costs, costs for legal assistance, information costs, costs of the summons writ/service of WIK-letter/service of other letters and official acts for which an extra hourly rate is charged are not at the expense of the debtor, but at the expense of the client;
- j. Execution orders are always treated as a file, for which filecosts and settlement costs are charged;
- k. If a writ must be served on different debtors, the Btag costs are charged per address (eg. two debtors at one address = 1x Btag, two debtors at two addresses = 2x Btag);
- l. Informations costs, court fees, service summons and salary agent can only be charged to the debtor if they are awarded by the judge. If they are not allocated, these costs will be charged to the client;
- m. If the collection costs are not included in the title/the verdict to be executed, these will be charged to the client when collecting (part of) the claim;
- n. Allocated principal, collection costs, litigation and information costs, as well as after costs (nasalaris) and other costs of seizure are recoverable from the debtor, but only if the debtor also has resources to seizure. If recovery is not possible, these costs will be charged to the client, whereby the collection costs are calculated over de collected part of the principal sum;
- o. Costs for a futile seizure of goods cannot be charged to the debtor. If an actual seizure of goods is subsequently levied, the costst of the futile siezure may again be recovered from the debtor;
- p. Settlement costs cannot be charged to the debtor, but will always be charged to the client;
- q. Unless stated otherwise, the aforementioned costs do not include out of pocket costs, such as those for engaging a locksmith and/or evacuation team, translating documents to be served abroad etc.
- r. Copy/print costs are calculated over all pages if the documents to be printed are more than 20 pages (single-sided copy/print);
- s. If the creditor ligitates on the bases of addition, then only the official acts will be compensated. Disbursements, settlement, out of pocket and all other costs are not included in the addition. See also art 40 Besluit vergoedingen rechtsbijstand 2000 en ECLI:NL;GHAMS: 2018:1418);
- t. Receipts in a file on addition are first settled against the official acts;
- u. These rates can only be deviated from by written agreement;

B. Debt monitoring costs:

If a file is transferred to the debt monitoring process, the information and executions costs incurred afterwards are on a no-cure-no-pay basis.

If (part of) the claim is collected afterwards, the receipts are first booked in favor of the information and enforcement costs incurred after the file has been included in the debt monitoring process, then on the costs incurred before the principal and interest.

The receipts for the principal sum are divided between CVL and the client on a 50/50 basis.

C. Costs for non-payment of services:
